BSX Rules

- Platform pedals only, no clip pedals or clip shoes allowed!
- Full race gear should be worn, including; full face helmet, full fingered gloves, shoes, long pants and long sleeves.
- All riders will use the left side of the track for their timed qualifying lap (unless otherwise specified). Riders who fall in their time trial will not get a second chance, they should attempt to complete their timed run.
- Only the fastest 32 pro open men, top 8 pro open women (or 16 if numbers allow) and top 16 30 & over riders (or 32 if numbers allow), according to time trial, will continue to the elimination rounds.
- Riders who qualify to the elimination rounds must wear the event number plate as supplied without covering the event sponsors logos. The numbers should not be changed or modified in any way. Once you are eliminated you must sign the plate and return it to the race officials.
- In the elimination rounds riders must stick to their side of the track without causing interference. The lanes are decided by the rider from each round with the fastest qualifying time from the time trial. The winner of each round is determined by the rider crosses the finish line first.
- Prize money will be payback for each class (Max $1000 for pro open, $500 for other classes, remainder will be donated to the RCH). Entry fee is $30 per rider. The breakdown of the money is 1st = 40%, 2nd = 30%, 3rd = 20%, and 4th = 10%. The winner of the semi finals will race for 1st & 2nd and the riders who place second in the semi finals will race for 3rd & 4th.
